Politics is the art of government. Politics is the interaction of citizens in the public sphere. Politics is a process of conflict resolution through negotiation, conciliation, and compromise.

Civics education empowers us to be well-informed, active citizens, and gives us the opportunity to change the world around us. It is a vital part of any democracy, and equips ordinary people with knowledge about our democracy and our Constitution.

Tyrrell County 4-H for the next 6-weeks will explore the Democratic process, why we have a government, Constitution Scavenger Hunt, Bill of Rights, Freedom of Speech, and Voting.

Week 1: Democratic Process

Week 2: Why Government?

Week 3: Constitution: Law of the Land Scavenger Hunt

Week 4: Write Your Own "Bill of Rights"

Week 5: Freedom of Speech

Week 6: Your Vote Counts!
